Dear Parent/Guardian

UCAS – The Next Step

Please find attached information that all Year 13 tutors have gone through with their tutees. It explains what their next steps should be in relation to their UCAS applications. Please note, however, that students may have individual instructions from their universities so they should read all emails from UCAS or their universities very carefully.

If your son/daughter is still deciding which of their courses to make their firm and insurance choices for can I please urge them to attend the applicants' days about which they would have been informed.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any enquiries.

Best wishes

Mrs K Stafford
