Dear Parents and Guardians

The end of Year 13 is fast approaching and for some students they will have their minds focused on their university offers. Therefore we are inviting you to an important information evening next Thursday March 23rd at 6pm in the Sixth Form Centre.

The Preparation For Higher Education Evening will offer lots of information and advice about what to expect over the next few months as well as practical tips and hints for students getting ready to leave home; as well as what to expect as a parent. The presentation will cover:

- Accepting Offers;
- Selecting accommodation;
- Applying for Finance;
- Results day: Track, Clearing, Adjustment;
- Practical advice from current University Students;
- Choices, decisions and what to take. Practical advice from the parental perspective.

Parents in previous years have really valued the information and advice given in this evening, especially if they have been preparing for their first child to leave home and go to university. Students are welcome to attend this evening, but they also have their own presentation from Bournemouth University to talk about student life and student finance on Tuesday 28th March.

The presentation will last between 45-60 minutes.

I will be writing again in the next few weeks to confirm dates for the end of term and exam leave.

Yours faithfully

Mrs K A Taylor
